

The Shepard Building is accessible by means of a stair lift to those unable to climb the steps and to those using conventional wheelchairs. The lift does not accommodate scooter type chairs due to the weight limit. Persons wishing to attend a meeting of any board or committee in the building and are unable to use the lift may contact the office 24 hours before a posted meeting to request an accommodation.